

To be honest, I understand that people have a job to do. However, my family pays a fee in order to keep our phone number unlisted. We have little enough time as a family, and we would prefer that it not be wasted fielding calls we did not ask to receive. While we understand and support the First Amendment, we do not understand why someone has the right to call our home and force upon us their "free speech".